

About

VaLegalAid.org is part of the legal safety net in Virginia. Our goal is to provide free, accurate and up-to-date information on poverty law issues in an accessible format. The site aims to allow access to this information by legal aid attorneys, pro bono attorneys, clients, advocates and providers of services to legal aid's traditional client base.

VALegalAid.org is a project of legal aid offices across Virginia, the Virginia Poverty Law Center, the Legal Services Corporation of Virginia and the Legal Services Corporation. It is produced in cooperation with Pro Bono Net and legal services organizations and government agencies through Virginia and the United States.

You may also call The Legal Aid Hotline for Low-Income Virginians at 1-866-LEGLAID (1-866-534-5243).

- ♦ Call Mon-Fri from 9 to 5 and reach your local legal aid office.
- ♦ After hours and weekends, call to hear pre-recorded legal information on a variety of topics.

The Virginia Poverty Law Center—Advocating for Lower-Income Virginians for Over 30 Years

VaLegalAid.org

A Guide to Virginia's
Free Website
for Legal Questions

Free legal information
and referrals to legal aid programs, lawyer referral
services, and court programs.

Getting Started

www.VaLegalAid.org

1. Visit www.VaLegalAid.org and click on the topic button that best matches your legal question.

2. Click on the subtopic that best matches your specific question.

-
- Landlord and Tenant Issues
  - Foreclosure Prevention
  - Mobile Homes and Manufactured Homes
  - Public Housing and Subsidized Housing

3. Select one of the following for local results.

Enter your zip code:

Or, type in your city:

Or, select a county:

4. Use the tabs to find referrals or self-help resources connected to your legal question.

